

Notice for the Processing of Personal Data received as part of an Application/ Expression of Interest for the suspension of instalments and interest on credit facilities (the “Application”)

This Notice follows the consultation of the Cyprus Association of Banks and the Office of the Commissioner of Personal Data.

The present Notice concerns any application submitted to Gordian Holdings Limited (the “Company”), in line with the Decree dated 30 March 2020 issued pursuant to the Emergency Measures by Financial Institutions and Supervisory Authorities Law of 2020 (the “Decree”). The Company will process the data included in your Application, in line with the principles of the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 and the relevant applicable local legislation, and in a way which respects, among others, the principles of legality, proper purpose, transparency, integrity, security and proportionality.

In particular, we would like to inform you of the following:

1. Legal basis for processing

The Company will process your personal data included in the Application, in order to comply with its legal obligations under the Decrees issued pursuant to article 5 of the Emergency Measures by Financial Institutions and Supervisory Authorities Law of 2020, as amended and reinstated. The said Decrees are available at <https://www.covid19.cy/>.

2. Purpose of processing

Via your Application the Company collects your personal data for pre-determined, specified and legal reasons and in particular in order to comply with its obligation to consider and implement your Application for the suspension of loan instalments and interest of your credit facilities with the Company.

3. Data security:

When processing your personal data included in your Application, the Company implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure their security.

If you would like more information on how we may process your personal data, your rights and other important information concerning the use of your data by the Company, please read our Data Protection Notice which is available at www.gordianholdings.com.